

Jefferson Vicariate CCW

Barbara K. Seaman – President

This has been a very productive year for the Jefferson CCW . We now have all our parishes involved in the CCW. I am so blessed to serve such wonderful ladies who are such strong examples of loving and giving Catholic women. God has helped me to strengthen my faith by supporting them.

Our Fall Vicariate meeting was held at St. Francis of Assisi Parish (formerly St. John the Baptist) in Jefferson. We had 96 attendees with our spiritual advisor, Msgr. Duane Moellenberndt along with 5 fellow priests, concelebrating the mass following the rosary. The Theme was, “Catholic Charities at Work ... Providing Help, Creating Hope.”

Entertainment was “What’s in Grandma’s Trunk?” provided by the Jefferson Historical Society . Attendees were treated to the dressing of a bride for yester year.

Meeting was adjourned to the church where directors from Catholic Charities spoke on the various programs available from Adoption to Aging.

We didn’t have a Spring Vicariate meeting as we encouraged our members to attend the Convention as the speakers are so important for our parishes to receive their messages. It will be determined by the attendance if we continue to proceed without a Spring Vicariate. I have an obligation to serve the most of the members.

Everyone has continued to have their holiday fairs, dinners with auctions, and annual festivals to help with the operating costs and needs of their parishes. Our ladies continue to support their parishes and help with the continually rising costs of maintaining their churches.

GOD BLESS ALL MEMBERS OF THE MADISON DIOCESE COUNCIL OF CATHOLIC WOMEN!!!!
